

Raising the beat to end child marriage in Bangladesh: Triggering norm changes through communication

Social and Behaviour Change
Strategy to End Child Marriage
As of February 2020

Purpose of the Documentation

Capture the strategic thinking of the SBCC response

Tool to look back as well as think forward

Detail the evidence-based design and social norms framing

Serve as institutional memory and a foundation for Phase 2

Documentation process

Methodology

Initial in-country visit for orientation and briefing

- Interviews with relevant stakeholders (GOB, UNICEF, UNFPA, and Partners)
- Observation of community engagement in two districts
- Focus Group Discussions with fathers, mothers and adolescents
- Collation of documents and material

?

Remote review and analysis

- ✓ Study of reports and documents provided by UNICEF
- ✓ Analysis of relevant literature on child marriage, SBCC, gender and norms
- Review of media materials shared by UNICEF
- Develop first draft

?

Second in-country visit for validation and finalization

- Additional consultations with GOB, media and research partners
- Validation meetings with GOB and stakeholders
- Collection of additional material and information

?

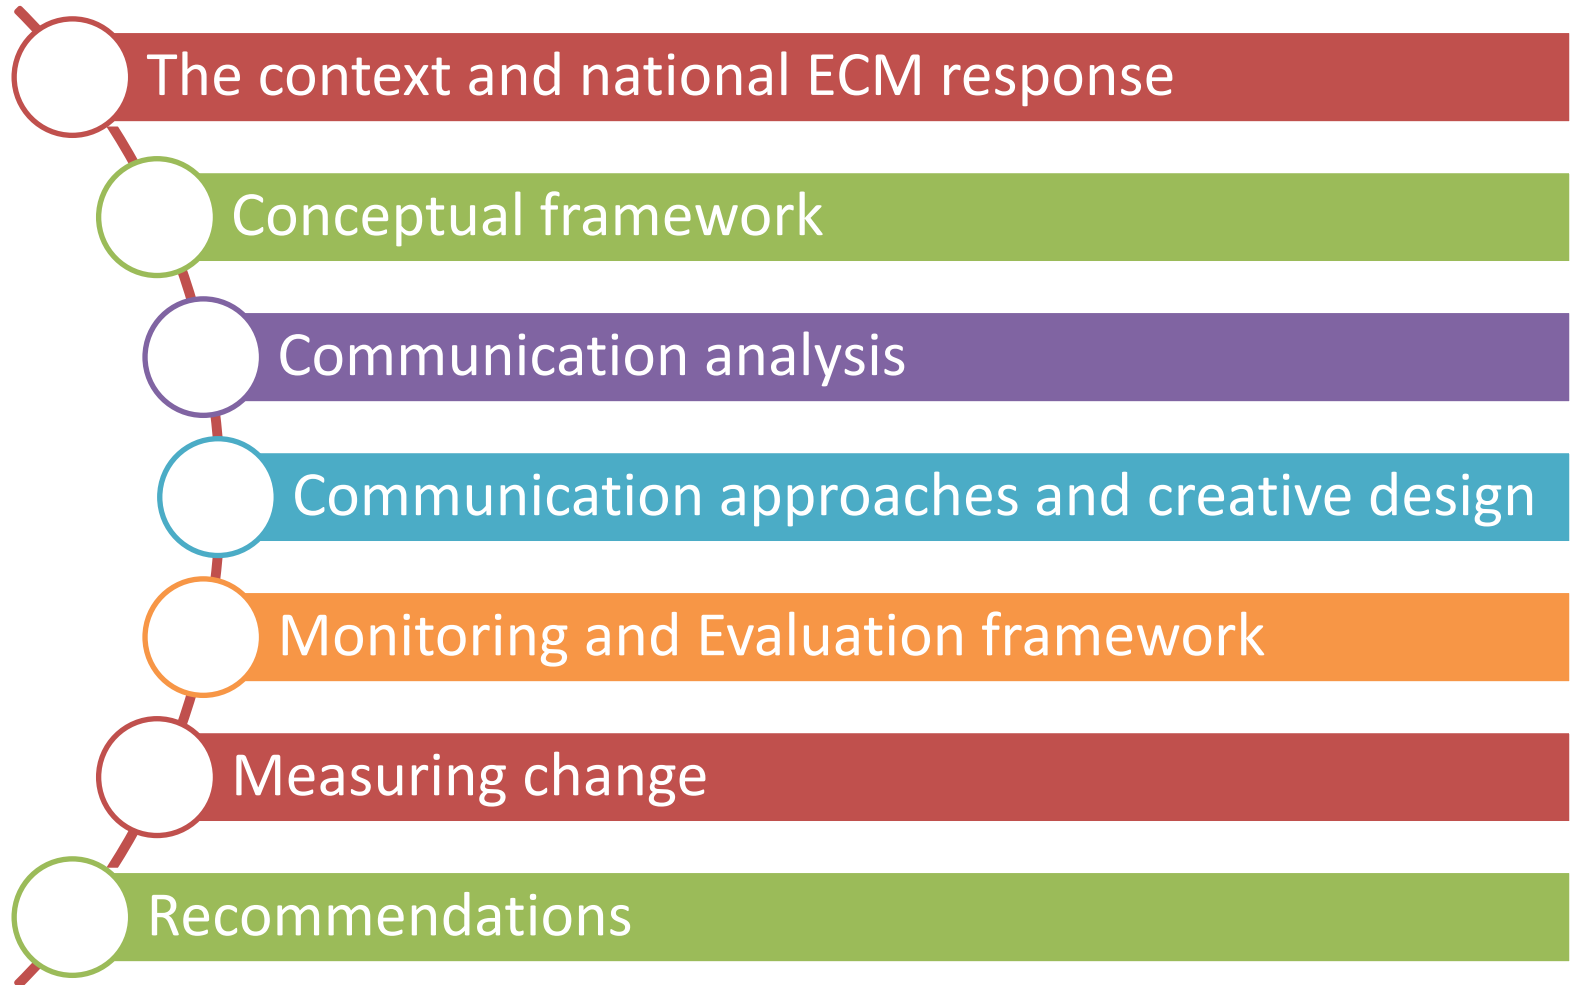

Finalization of the document

- Refined first draft
- Circulate for review
- Revised based on feedback
- Finalize the document

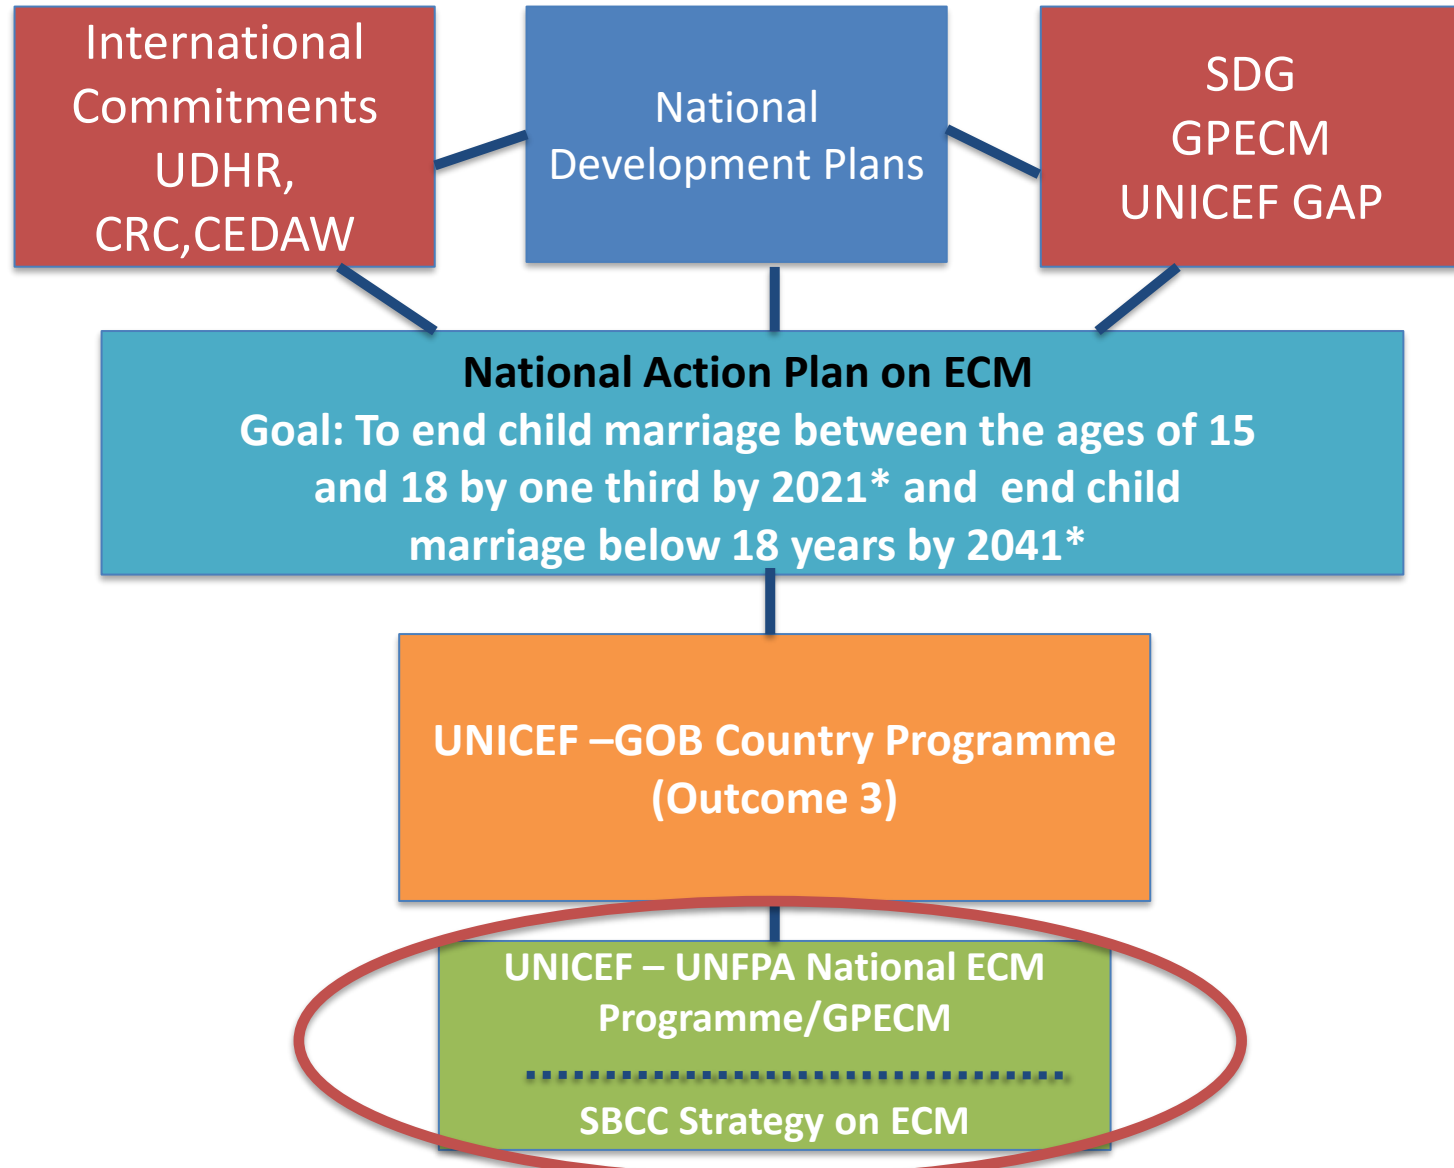

?

?

Structure of the Report

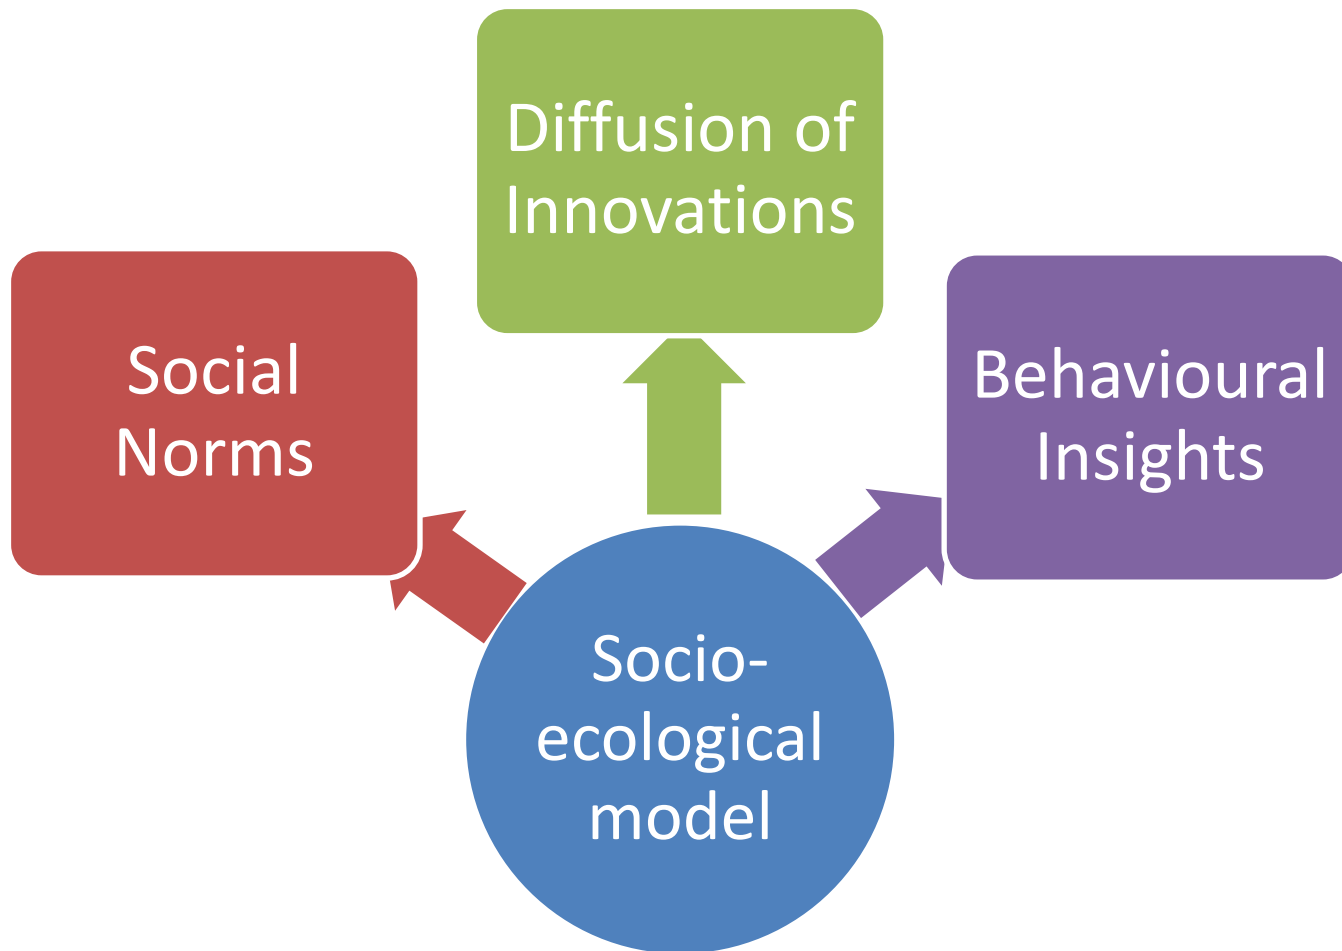

National Context and ECM Response

Evidence Based Design

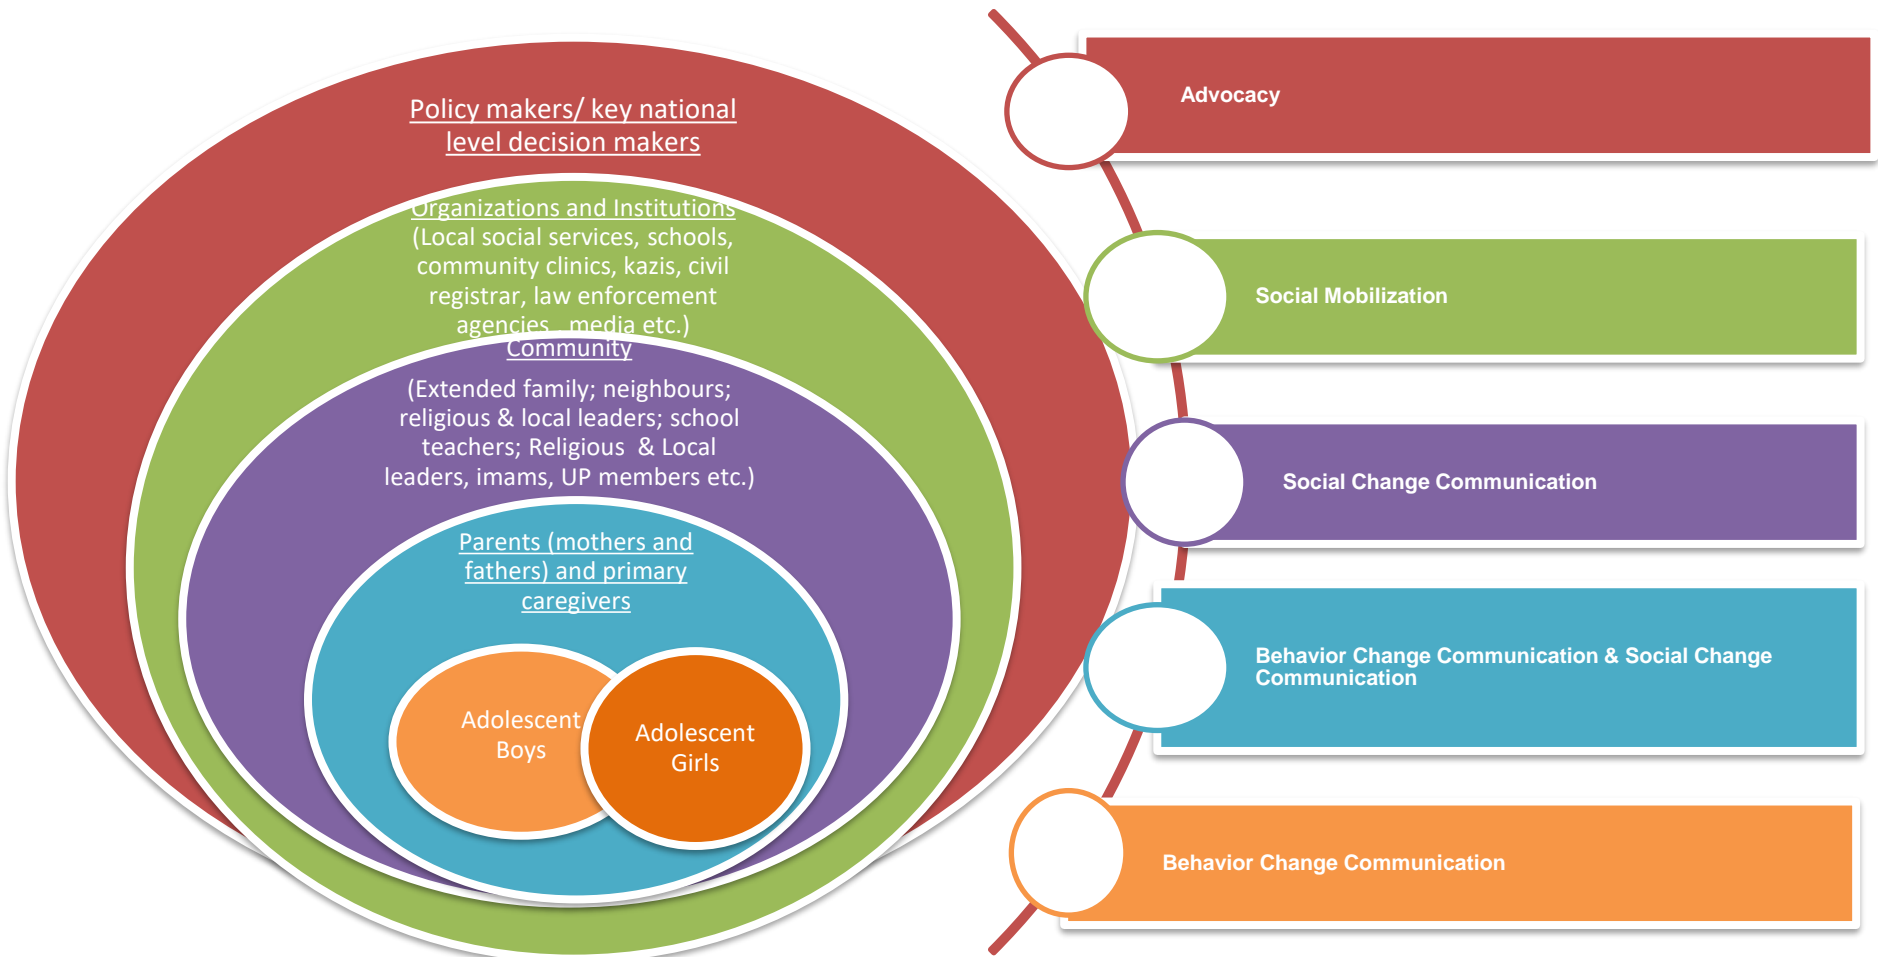

Situation Analysis	Recommendations
CM Widely accepted	Wide reach through a mediated campaign
CM Declining	Leverage on the changing norm
CM Socially accepted and expected	Focus on the community and not the individual Community Influentials
Gender norms	Community engagement Local level advocacy
TV preferred medium	TV based assets
Rapid digitalization	Social media presence

Conceptual Framing

The Socio-ecological model served as a guiding framework

SEM applied to ECM in Bangladesh

Applying Social Norms

Join the wave

Everybody is doing it, I need to belong to the wave

Be conscientious

It is wrong not to take a stand against this harmful and unlawful act

As a part of the society it is my social obligation

Be the change

I become culpable,
if I do not act

Be irreproachable

... inaction is crime too.

Reference groups for Child Marriage

Model Adapted for Bangladesh from Bicchieri, 2014

Communication Goal

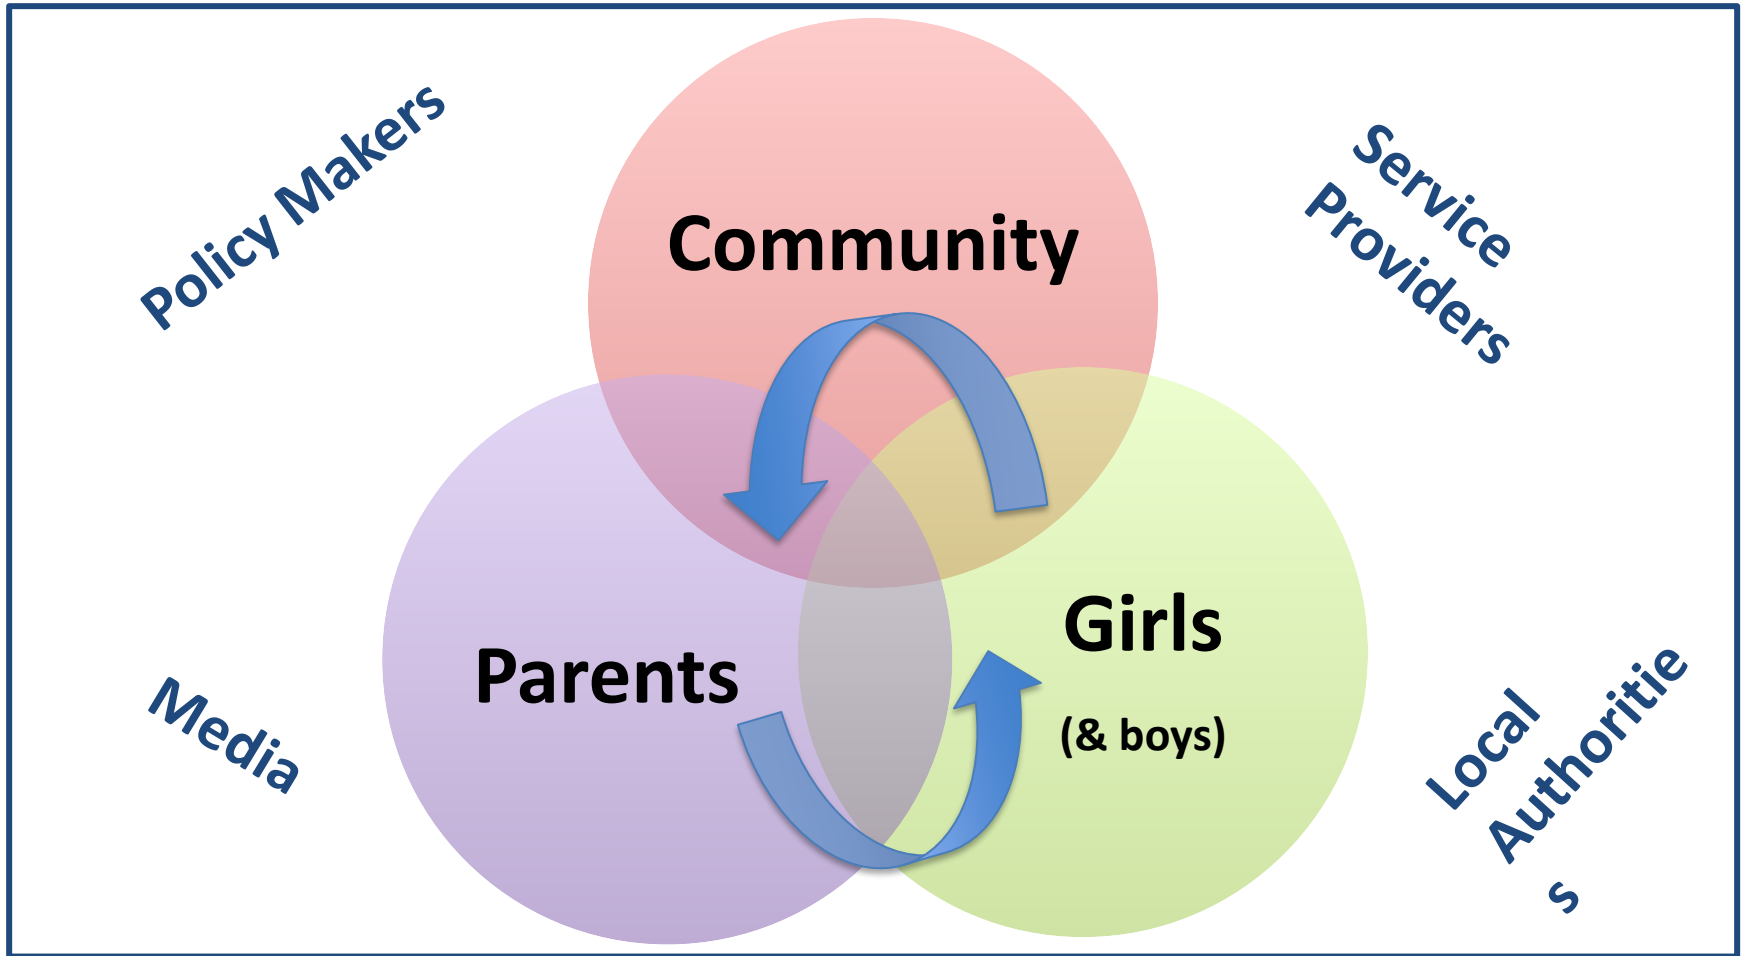

- To empower adolescents and their families with the knowledge, attitudes and skills to make informed choices about their future and engage communities to foster norm changes that promote gender equality and prevent child marriage

Behavioural Objectives

- Girls under 18 years are not physically and mentally ready for marriage and child birth; find out more (research to know)
- Do not arrange or encourage child marriage; do not participate (refrain, resist)
- Participate in community efforts to end child marriage; involve and discuss with others (raise awareness, rally against child marriage)
- Report a child marriage initiated in your community, please call 109/1098 (report) or local authorities

Primary Participants

COMMUNICATION APPROACHES AND CREATIVE DESIGN

Social and Behavioural Change Communication (SBCC) Components

Trans-Media (National)

- Dhol 1 & 2 (PSAs)
- Icchedana 1, 2 & 3 (Drama Series)
- Social Media
- Docu-Drama
- Radio adaptation
- Folk performances
- Outdoor media

Community Engagement & Social Mobilization (High Prevalence)

- Adolescent Clubs (with CP)
- Courtyard Discussions
- Fathers Groups
- Community Dialogue Sessions (with CBCPC)
- Adolescent Radio Listeners Group
- Mobilization of local leaders and influentials

Advocacy & Capacity Building (Integrated)

- Partnership with Islamic Foundation
- Integration of CM with 15 Behaviours
- Advocacy at the national and sub-national level
- Capacity building of local partners

Comprehensive approach and communication assets

Key Milestones

2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
------	------	------	------	------	------

Girls
Summit

GPECM
Phase 1

NAP
Consultations

SBCC
Planning

CBCPC for ECM

ARLG

Folk Media

CMRA

Dhol 1

Radio
Adaptation

KAP
Baseline

Fathers
Groups

Communit y Dialogue

Courtyard
Discussion

Dhol 2

Icche Dana
1

NAP
Endorsed

KAP
Midline

Religious Leaders

Icche
Dana2

Docu
Drama

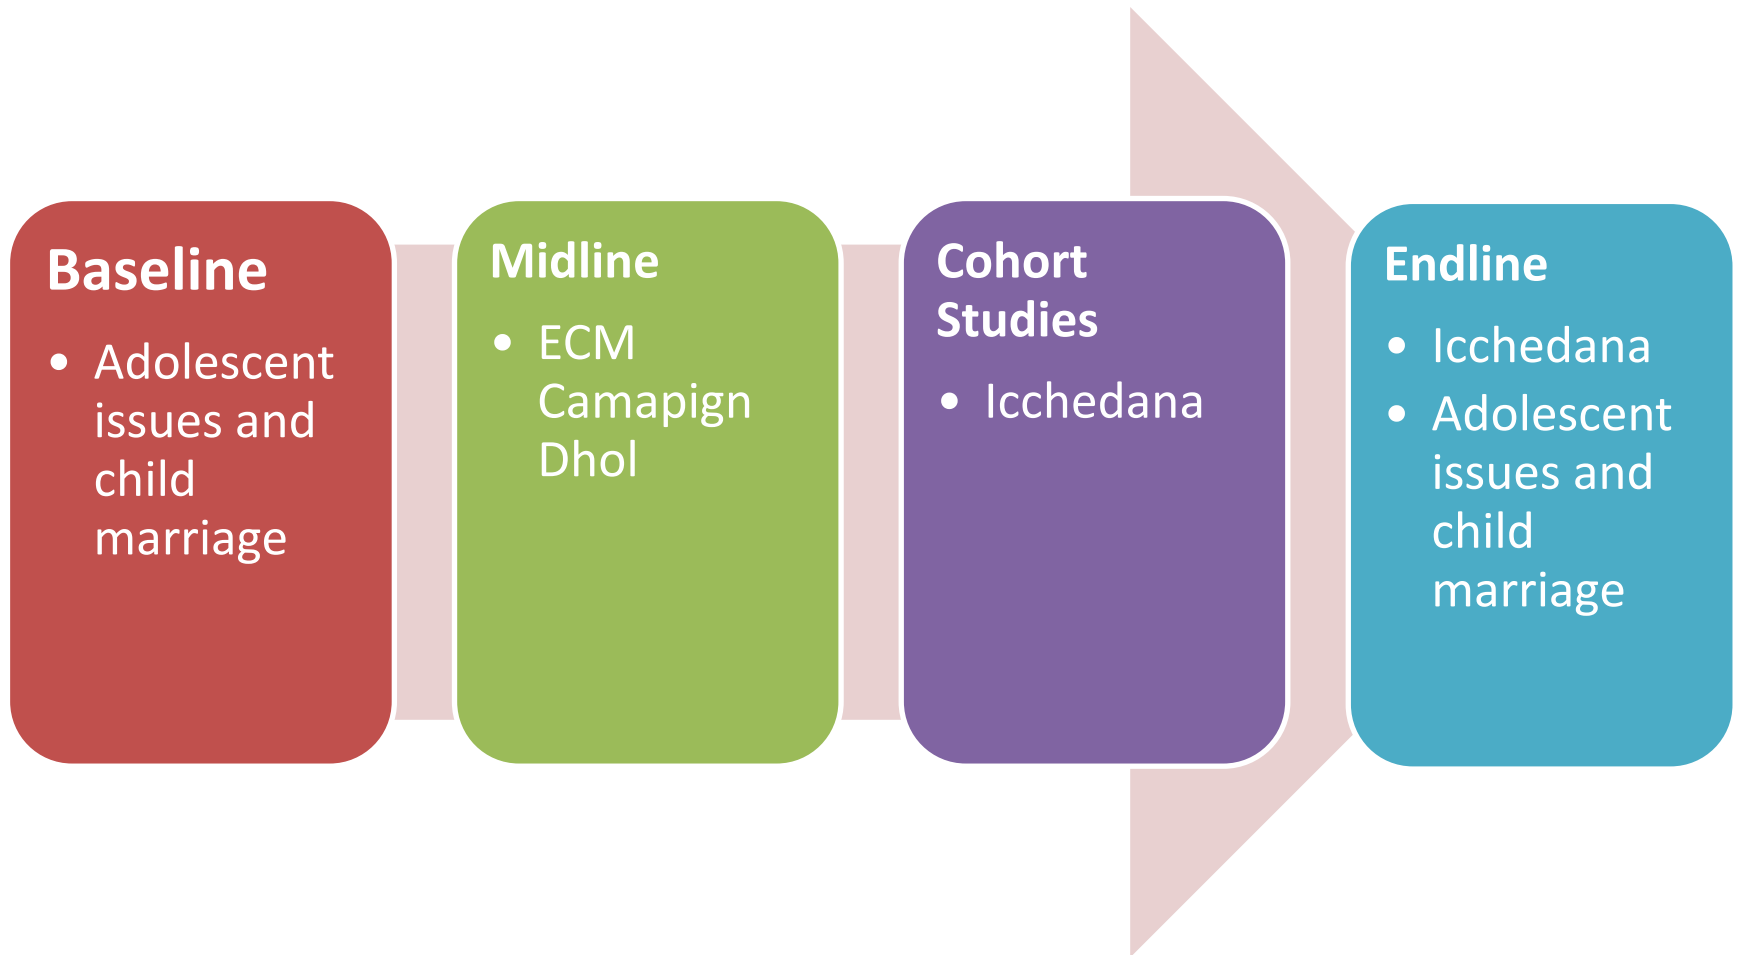

SBCC
Phase 2
Planning

KAP
Endline

Implementing Partners

Research Design

M&E Tools

Summary of Key Endline Findings

- Low and medium levels of exposure and engagement
- More adolescent girls and boys watch the show compared to parents
- Higher knowledge of age of marriage and consequences of CM associated with exposure
- Higher levels of IPC/discussion around CM including among boys and men at endline
- Increases in actions to prevent child marriages over time and by level of exposure
- Improved attitudes around early marriage, girl's education & nutrition, gender roles, and sexual harassment over time and by level of exposure

Achievements & Innovations

Evidence Based Theoretically Driven Strategy

Norm Based Media Campaign

Media campaign reach and recognition

Changes in CM and gender related knowledge, attitudes, practices and norms

Leveraging social media

Partnerships and move away from sectoral silos

RECOMMENDATIONS

SBCC Programme Coverage and Convergence

Expand current exposure and engagement levels

Explore new partnerships for innovative knowledge products

Cross-sectoral convergence - Comprehensive evaluation

Strengthening the on-air and on-ground linkage

Added interactivity and including live components

Gender Transformative aspirational messages featuring positive role models

Enhanced adolescent participation

Enhancing male engagement

Institutionalizing SBCC /C4D in MoWCA

Establishing Child Marriage Free Zones